General Cabell:

Noted that he now had three recommendations for the award of the Distinguished Intelligence Medal, and while each of these is most deserving, he felt that the first Medal should be reserved for an outstanding performance in the field. Mr. Helms noted that two of these recommendations are for performance in the field and Mr. Amory remarked that the recommendation from him, while not for field services, was for outstanding work in the research field. No decision was made. Mr. [REDACTED] will discuss further with the Director. NOTE: In connection with Medals the Director asked the status of the proposed awards for PBSUCCESS. ACTION: Mr. [REDACTED]
